

UNIVERSITY OF CAMBRIDGE DEPARTMENT OF VETERINARY MEDICINE

SURGICAL RESIDENCY POSITION

(SENIOR CLINICAL TRAINING SCHOLARSHIP)

The Senior Clinical Training Scholarship provides an outstanding opportunity to study for a postgraduate qualification, and is available from 1 October 2018 for a period up to 30 June 2022. The Scholar will be trained in all aspects of small animal surgery, including soft tissue and orthopaedics. The training programme is approved by the European College of Veterinary Surgery.

The Scholarship is for one year in the first instance, renewable for periods of one year up to 30 June 2022. It is subject to an initial monitoring period of six months and to review on an annual basis.

The Scholar will be required to register for the ECVS Diploma in Small Animal Surgery. The training programme requires participation in the Department's clinical service, including the out-of-hours rota, in addition to small-group teaching of veterinary students.

Applicants must be a Member of the Royal College of Veterinary Surgeons. Completion of an ECVS recognised internship and at least one year's experience in practice is required. Full details of the person specification for the Scholarship are supplied in the information pack.

Informal enquiries: contact Julie Ingham ji217@cam.ac.uk.

Closing Date: 21 August 2018

Interview date: 12 September 2018

Application form (SCTS1) and information pack about the Scholarship: download from link below.

<http://www.jobs.cam.ac.uk/job/18221/file/information+pack+and+application+form.docx>

Completed application form including your curriculum vitae and, covering letter should be emailed to vetmed@hermes.cam.ac.uk by the closing date.

Please quote reference PP16214 on your application and in any correspondence about this vacancy.

The University values diversity and is committed to equality of opportunity.

The University has a responsibility to ensure that all employees are eligible to live and work in the UK