

EQUINE SURGEON

Clinical track position in Equine Surgery available at the Clinéquine of the Veterinary Teaching Hospital of VetAgro Sup (Veterinary Campus, University of Lyon) at Marcy L'Etoile, France.

Duties

Clinical and teaching duties (80%) : Participation in clinical teaching, including patient care, lameness examinations, elective and emergency surgery; Supervision of students, externs, interns and residents in the disciplines of surgery and lameness examination; Evaluation of acquired knowledge of veterinary students through examination; Guidance and assistance of the administrative secretaries of the Clinéquine in the areas of surgery and orthopaedics.

Other duties : administration, clinical research and outreach for VetAgro Sup (20%).

Requirements

- Graduate from an accredited veterinary school
- Having completed a residency in Large Animal (Equine) Surgery
- Diplomate or eligibility to sit the examination of the European or American College of Veterinary Surgeons (ECVS, ACVS)
- Licensed to practise in France
- Able to speak French or willing to learn the language

VetAgro Sup
Campus Vétérinaire de Lyon

Additional Information

Working hours must be flexible and include nights and weekends in accordance with an established rotation with 3 equine surgery colleagues.

Salary

VetAgro Sup offers a variable salary in function of the experience and level of specialisation of the candidate.

Start and duration of employment

June 2021 or later according to the availability of the candidate.

Annually renewable.

Application

Candidates are invited to submit a letter of intent, indicating their interest and career objectives, along with a curriculum vitae and a copy of diplomas to: Prof. Olivier Lepage olivier.lepage@vetagro-sup.fr

Review of applications will begin immediately and continue until the position is filled.