

Equine Surgeon

An Equine Surgeon is required for a busy equine hospital in Ireland. A board certified specialist or board eligible candidates are preferred.

Sycamore Lodge Equine Hospital is based on the Curragh, County Kildare. The Curragh is at the heart of thoroughbred breeding and racing in Ireland. Sycamore Lodge Equine Hospital provides elective and emergency surgical services to a wide range of equine breeders, owners, producers and trainers across Ireland. It is a growing equine hospital with immediate plans to employ a specialist in equine internal medicine.

The hospital has a broad range of surgical facilities and boasts a full compliment of surgical equipment. Surgical services are supported by a strong nursing team and internship program.
