ECVS Residency (m/f/d) in Large Animal Surgery (Equine)

EG 14 TV-L (75%), fixed term contract

in the Clinic for Horses. Starting date: next possible

The Clinic for Horses is a state of the art facility with a mixed case load of soft tissue and orthopaedic cases, including emergencies. Supervision by Diplomates in all clinical and non-clinical specialties is ensured.

Area of responsibility

This ECVS residency program involves the day-to-day diagnostic work-up and treatment of surgical and orthopaedic patients.

Participation in regular emergency duties including nights and weekends is expected (surgical, orthopaedic, and internal medicine emergencies). This position also requires involvement in both theoretical and practical education of veterinary students. Adequate time for clinical research and continuing education will be allowed.

Recruitment requirements

- graduation from a veterinary school with grades above average
- completion of a one-year rotating internship program or equivalent practice experience of 2 years
- completion of an advanced academic degree is desirable but not a requirement
- adequate knowledge of the German language to be able to effectively communicate with clients and students
- good command of the English language

What we offer

- Special annual bonus
- 30 days holiday
- Additional retirement arrangement: Pension Institution of the Federal Republic and the Federal States (the company pension of the public service)
- Staff canteen with discount meal offers
- Participation in university sports at a discount

- Targeted further education and training opportunities
- Family friendliness
- Appreciative working atmosphere with contemporary management culture

The employment relationship is subject to the public sector collective agreement on the federal states (TV-L).

Severely disabled applicants will be given priority in the case of equal suitability. The University of Veterinary Medicine Hannover particularly wants to promote the professional equality of men and women. Therefore, it strives to increase the underrepresented gender in the respective area.
