

The Déiereklinik Krakelshaff in Bettembourg / Luxembourg is the biggest Veterinary Clinic in the country (www.deiereklinik.lu).

It is a full-service animal hospital that welcomes emergency cases as well as pets for routine medical or surgical care in a comfortable, modern and calm surrounding.

The surgical suite is equipped with high-standard surgical equipment so we can offer a wide variety of services also including for example disc surgery.

We are currently looking for a dedicated, experienced Veterinary Surgeon (m/f) who would like to join a professional and friendly team in a forward-thinking modern clinic.

Join our crew and take another step in your career including a potential partnership.

You are an enthusiastic person with excellent clinical and communication skills who is confident in routine surgery, disc surgery and general consultations?
You have first knowledge in German and/or French? - Then join our crew!

For further information and to apply for this position contact leiner@vetstage.de.

For further information about the Déiereklinik Krakelshaff visit: www.deiereklinik.lu