

IVC EVIDENSIA

SMALL ANIMAL SURGEON NEEDED – AUNA ESPECIALIDADES VETERINARIAS
REFERRAL HOSPITAL – IVC Evidensia (VALENCIA - SPAIN)

AUNA ESPECIALIDADES VETERINARIAS is a multi-disciplinary referral hospital located in the East coast of Spain (Valencia).

We are looking for an additional enthusiastic Small Animal Surgeon with an interest and training in soft tissue surgery, orthopaedics and also neurosurgery (mostly out of hours) to join our team. The Surgery Service is currently made up of two ECVS diplomates, one senior surgeon, one ECVS resident and three surgery interns. Our team has boarded specialists in many disciplines: ECVS, ECVN, ACVIM-Onco, ECVDI, ACVR, ECVIM, amongst the 64 professionals working in the hospital. The ideal candidate would be ACVS/ECVS board certified or board-eligible candidate, however, applicants with broad surgical experience are also welcomed to apply. Being fluent or willing to become rapidly fluent in Spanish is mandatory.

This is a full-time position with a well-balanced surgical caseload and includes orthopaedics and soft tissue cases. Part-time employment while preparing for diploma exams can be considered before joining the team at full-time. We offer a competitive salary based on qualifications and experience, an interesting caseload and a good work-life balance. Our facilities offer an excellent working environment including dedicated treatment rooms, ICU, cardiology and oncology suites, separated dogs and cats' wards, 16-slice CT scanner, digital radiography, fluoroscopy, fully comprehensive set of Storz HD video scopes for laparoscopy and arthroscopy, two fully equipped operating theatres, etc.

AUNA is part of IVC Evidensia, Europe's largest veterinary care provider comprising an expansive network of clinics, hospitals and out-of-hour centres based across 12 countries.

Valencia is a sunny Mediterranean city with excellent climate and plentiful leisure possibilities helped by excellent travel infrastructures. Valencia, the third largest city in Spain, offers a great combination of city, sun and beach, mountains, fantastic food and also has the largest inner-city urban park in the whole of Europe.
